Full of Faith

When you're full of faith, you have a deep trust in God and His power to heal. The nurse's firm expectation of freedom for the patient, based on this trust, contributes mightily to healing.

If you're a member of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, and you're ready to let your faith be felt in a new setting, perhaps you'd like to look into the Christian Science Nurses Training Program.

Please send me information about Christian Science nurses training.
